

Facility Strategies

The FM or Facilities strategy may be created independently of the property strategy, or may follow on from it. Using the strategic review process the Facilities strategy benchmarks the service from the different perspectives including;

- cost
- performance management
- productivity
- process
- organisation and competence

Our process also typically includes an appraisal of the different sourcing strategies; to determine the best value solution for providing management and service resources for the organisation.