

Implementation & Change

The Coretex International team, undertake a range of implementation services from sourcing and procurement, including service level development, to leading and developing teams and performance management.

The change process can be supported by ongoing operations with an interim management resource.

