

Biography

Kate Strzelecka, Director and Head Coach

MSc (Management and Organisation)

Particular expertise in enabling cultural change and business communication particularly as they affect staff motivation and management leadership.

Leader in performance management training with extensive delivery to major companies across Europe (Renault, Citibank, Pfizer and many others).

Strong academic background with 8 years as a university lecturer (Faculty of Engineering and Faculty of Engineering and Organization, University of Lodz).

Kate is a Co-active coaching practitioner able to work at all levels within client organisations with very well developed interpersonal skills.

Accredited by the Coaches Training Institute (CTI)
Fluent in French, English and Polish